

Pattern II

- supply room – a room where supplies are kept for use within an organization.
- warehouse – a large building where raw materials and/or manufactured goods (e.g., parts, equipment, supplies) may be stored before they are distributed to other entities either inside or outside of the organization.